STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

India has been a traditional exporter of spices. Though exports of spices from India have shown marginal increases over the last few years, the proportionate share of India in the total world trade has declined to about one-third.

2. At present, the Spices Export Promotion Council looks after the exports of spices while the development of production and exports of cardamom is being taken care of by the Cardamom Board. Due to lack of a cohesive organisation as well as financial constraints, India has not been able to undertake systematic development of products and export of spices. As a result, there has been limited product development and our spices are being exported largely in bulk and unprocessed form. Concentrated effort to promote exports in value added form and consumer packages are required to be made. Markets for spices as also the prices have been fluctuating from year to year causing fluctuations in the production pattern. The uneven production pattern has, in turn, its effect on exports. There is need for bringing out stabilisation in the export business of spices. Similarly, there is need to bring about constant improvement in quality of our products, and in productivity to improve competitiveness of Indian spices.

3. While a number of institutions and research organisations are operating in the spices sector, co-ordination of the activities of these agencies is considered necessary.

4. In view of these problems affecting the spices trade and industry, it has been considered that the future export policy should concentrate on increasing production and productivity of spices, development of spice exports in value added form and initiating production of new spices and spice products for the international market. For this purpose, it is proposed to set up a Spices Board replacing the Cardamom Board and the Spices Export Promotion Council. While absorbing the present assets and staff of these two organisations, the proposed Spices Board will be responsible for the entire range of functions of production, marketing, exports and export promotion with regard to cardamom and export promotion for all other spices. The new Board would have representatives of growers, Central and State Governments, Research Institutions, traders and exporters. It will be financed by a cess on exports within a ceiling of five per cent. The availability of funds will make it possible for it to direct and promote research and developmental activities aimed at increasing exports of spices and spice products. Such activities need the support of an organisation having a sound financial base to help the trade compete successfully against international competition.

5. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill is complementary to the Spices Board Bill, 1985. The Spices Board Bill, 1985 seeks to provide for the establishment of a Board to be called the Spices Board for the control of the cardamom industry and for the promotion of the export of cardamom and other spices. In order to ensure that the said Board has necessary resources to discharge its functions, this Bill seeks to provide for the levy by way of a cess of a duty of customs on all the spices specified in the Schedule to the Spices Board Bill which are exported. The intention is to make over, after due appropriation by Parliament by law, the proceeds of the cess, to the said Board.

2. This Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

NEW DELHI;

ARJUN SINGH.

The 25th November, 1985.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. 11/5/84-EP(Agrl. III), dated the 26th November, 1985 from Shri Arjun Singh, Minister of Commerce to the Secretary-General, Lok Sabha.]

The President, having been informed of the subject matter of the Spices Cess Bill, 1985 recommends under clause (1) of article 117 of the Constitution of India, the introduction of the Bill in Lok Sabha and under clause (3) of article 117, the consideration of the said Bill in Lok Sabha.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

With a view to ensuring that the Spices Board to be established under the Spices Board Bill, 1985, has necessary resources to discharge its functions, the Bill seeks to provide for the levy, by way of cess, of a duty of customs on spices specified in the Schedule to the Spices Board Bill, 1985, at such rate not exceeding five per cent. ad valorem as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

2. The proceeds of the above-mentioned cess will be paid into the Consolidated Fund of India. The Central Government may, if Parliament, by appropriation made by law in this behalf, so provides, pay to the Board, from time to time, from out of such proceeds (after deducting the cost of collection), such sums of money as it may think fit.

3. The collection of the above-mentioned cess will involve some expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It has not been possible at this stage to estimate the amount of such expenditure as that will depend upon various contingencies such as the rate at which the cess may be levied, the quality and quantity of spices which may be exported, etc. However, it is tentatively estimated that the collection of the cess would be about Rs. 250 lakhs per annum on an average. The expenses of collection would on this basis come to about Rs. five lakhs. As only the balance of the proceeds, after deducting the cost of the collection, may be utilized for making payment to the Board, there will, in effect, be no net out-go from the Consolidated Fund of India.

4. The expenditure on the collection of cess will be of a recurring nature and the Bill does not involve any other expenditure whether of a recurring or non-recurring nature.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 5 of the Bill seeks to empower the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the provisions of the proposed legislation. The matters with respect to which rules may be made relate to the form in which and the period within which statistical and other information may be called for and other matters of detail.

2. The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.

SUBHASH C. KASHYAP,
Secretary-General.
